Deal Status Report — October 28, 2026

Week of October 28, 2026 • Prepared by Grant Sapkin • For Kenny & Michael Motew

SCREENED — ACTIVE UNDERWRITING — 2 DEALS

1500 N Halsted St — Lincoln Park — HOTTEST — OFFER THIS WEEK

Stage: Screened (advancing to LOI) | Value: $7.0M | 32 units | Counterparty: Tom Svoboda

Headline: The most active deal in the book. Kenny & Michael toured the building, we toured again 10/27, and the plan is to get an offer in this week. Today the team finalizes numbers and shapes the Letter of Intent — one structure on the table folds in selling 691 Milwaukee and 118 Illinois to Newcastle as part of the package. A real-sized 32-unit asset in a core Lincoln Park location; this is the one to watch for a move to LOI.

TASK	STATUS	NOTES
Finalize numbers & shape the Letter of Intent	● In Progress	Due today — discuss numbers with everyone; one structure includes selling 691 Milwaukee and 118 Illinois to Newcastle as part of the offer.

Recently completed: ✓ Toured again, targeting an offer this week (10/27) ✓ Got Kenny & Michael through the building (10/26) ✓ Reviewed numbers with Andrew (10/20) ✓ Ran both pursue/pass scenarios back to Tom (10/15)

1509 W Fullerton Ave — Lincoln Park — INITIAL SCREEN

Stage: Screened | 10 units | Counterparty: Nick Stellas

Headline: Early Lincoln Park screen through Nick Stellas, still sitting at the front of the queue. 10 units; no asking price set and first-pass numbers still to come — no activity logged this week. Carried so the pipeline shape stays visible; investigate once the offering memorandum and pricing are in hand.

LOI — 0 DEALS

Nothing at this stage this week.

UNDER CONTRACT — 0 DEALS

Nothing at this stage this week.

HOLD — 4 DEALS

343 W Erie St — River North — MOVED TO HOLD

Stage: Hold | Value: $12.45M | Counterparty: Dominic Soltero

Headline: Last week's top screen has cooled to Hold. After pulling the offering memorandum (10/15), running the back-of-envelope (10/19), and reviewing the initial numbers with Andrew (10/21), the early read didn't justify pushing straight into a deeper underwrite, so the $12.45M River North look (via Dominic Soltero) is parked as a watch. No open action — revisit if pricing or the story moves.

Recently completed: ✓ Reviewed initial numbers with Andrew (10/21) ✓ Ran back-of-envelope template (10/19) ✓ Got offering memorandum from Dominic, sent to Andrew (10/15)

East Lincoln Park — 67-Unit Deconversion — WATCH — LARGEST DEAL

Stage: Hold | Value: ~$15.0M (our basis) | 67 units | Counterparty: Matt Neistat

Headline: Still the biggest deal on the board, on Hold with no movement this week. 67-unit Lincoln Park condo deconversion near DePaul / Wiener Circle, sourced through Matt, who advises the ownership group after an unsolicited offer. Last word (10/9) was the board pushing Matt as listing agent with an update to follow — the next move still sits with him and the owners on access and direction. Price talk stays wide: sellers float $18.5–$19.0M, Matt pegs ~$17.0M, we underwrite from ~$15.0M, with $1.5–$2.0M capex (~$15K/unit) for electrical and galvanized plumbing. Holding until there's a reason to re-engage.

3639 N Broadway — Wrigleyville Development Site

HOLD

Stage: Hold | Value: $5.0M | 24 units as-of-right | Counterparty: Steve Frishman

Headline: Quiet this week, still on Hold. $5M Wrigleyville development site; the base case is 24 units as-of-right (~$208K/door land basis, over our $150K/door ceiling). The lever is a 59-residential + 2-retail + 40-parking upzone that cuts land basis to ~$85K/door, comfortably under the ceiling. Gate: does the entitlement timeline and cost still clear a 7%+ yield on cost. Holding while we model both scenarios with Kenny & Michael — the rezone is the swing variable, carrying entitlement risk, timeline, and post-rezone reassessment exposure.

1312 W North Ave — Lincoln Park

Stage: Hold | Value: $1.15M | Counterparty: Michael Rourke

Headline: On Hold behind a competing buyer, quiet this week. The scheduled check-in with Mike (10/19) is done; staying on Hold pending whether the competing buyer drops before we spend more time. Smallest deal on the board at $1.15M — low effort to keep warm.

Recently completed: ✓ Checked in with Mike on the competing deal (10/19)

PASSED THIS WEEK

2 DEALS

343 W Erie's sibling look, 10-22 W Erie St (River North — Malek Abdulsamad) — after re-running the back-of-envelope and reviewing the numbers with Andrew (10/21), the economics didn't warrant a deeper underwrite. Passed.

720 W Cornelia Ave (Lakeview — Jacob Price) — pulled taxes from Sarnoff/Goldberg (10/14) and reviewed the numbers with Andrew (10/20); the deal didn't clear the box at the ask. Passed.
